Risk rating

First Trust Portfolios Canada has rated the volatility of this ETF as low to medium. This rating is based on how much the ETF's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the ETF will be in the future. The rating can change over time. An ETF with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the ETF's returns, see the Risk section of the ETF's prospectus.

<sup>3</sup>The weighted average effective duration is a measure of the bond portfolio's price sensitivity to changes in interest rates. Bond portfolios with longer durations are more sensitive to changes in interest rates than securities of shorter durations.

<sup>5</sup>The weighted average coupon rate payment for non-cash assets. For bonds, this is the annual coupon rate. For loans, this is the all-in rate (nominal spread plus 3-month LIBOR).

<sup>6</sup>The gross yield to a 3-year life is the weighted average yield for non-cash assets, to worst for bonds and gross yield to 3-year life for loans.

<sup>7</sup>Distribution rate is calculated by dividing the most recent annualized distribution paid or declared by the Net Asset Value. Distribution rates may vary. The distributed amount may include return of capital (ROC) from time to time.

<sup>8</sup>The ratings are by Standard & Poor's except where otherwise indicated. A credit rating is an assessment provided by a nationally recognized statistical rating organization (NRSRO) of the creditworthiness of an issuer with respect to debt obligations except for those debt obligations that are only privately rated. Ratings are measured on a scale that generally ranges from AAA (highest) to D (lowest). Investment grade is defined as those issuers that have a long-term credit rating of BBB- or higher. "NR" indicates no rating. The credit ratings shown relate to the credit worthiness of the issuers of the underlying securities in the Fund, and not to the Fund or its shares. Credit ratings are subject to change.

Commissions, trailing commissions, management fees and expenses all may be associated with fund investments. Please read the prospectus before investing. The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compound total returns including changes in the unit value and reinvestment of all distributions and do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional charges or income taxes payable by the unitholder that would have reduced returns. Funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.
