Investment Objective and Strategy

The fundamental investment objective of First Trust Dow Jones Internet ETF (the “First Trust ETF”) is to replicate, to the extent possible, the performance of an index of U.S. companies involved in the internet industry, initially the Dow Jones Internet Composite IndexSM.

The Dow Jones Internet Composite IndexSM, is a float-adjusted market capitalization weighted index designed to represent the largest and most actively traded stocks of U.S. companies in the Internet industry.

Risk

The First Trust ETF provides exposure to its index by investing all or substantially all of its assets in an underlying U.S. index fund known as First Trust Dow Jones Internet Index Fund (the “Underlying Fund”), which is managed by the First Trust ETF’s portfolio advisor.

The risks associated with an investment in the First Trust ETF is discussed in the First Trust ETF’s most recent prospectus.

Results of Operations

General

The First Trust ETF’s total net asset value as of December 31, 2025, was $8,203,462 or $30.03 per Unit (“FDN”) and $19.93 per Hedged Unit (“FDN.F”). The First Trust ETF’s total net asset value as of December 31, 2024, was $12,068,857 or $28.38 per FDN and $18.36 per FDN.F.

There were no cash distributions paid nor declared for the year ended December 31, 2025 by the First Trust ETF.

Investment Performance

For the year ended December 31, 2025, FDN returned 5.82% compared to the S&P 500® Index (the “benchmark”) return of 12.35% while FDN.F returned 8.53% compared to the S&P 500® Index (CAD-Hedged) (the “hedged benchmark”) total return of 15.92%. Unlike the benchmark and the hedged benchmark, the First Trust ETF’s returns are net of fees and expenses.

The First Trust ETF’s only holding, the Underlying Fund, held 41 equity securities as of December 31, 2025. The top ten equity holdings for the Underlying Fund accounted for 62.58% of the portfolio within the Underlying Fund.

The Underlying Fund underperformed the benchmark during the period due to stock selection, mostly within the Financials and Information Technology sectors. Sector allocation was a small positive contributor to performance, mostly due to an overweight position in the Communication Services sector.

The Underlying Fund’s top five stocks by contribution to return were Alphabet Inc., Cisco Systems, Inc., Carvana Co., Cloudflare, Inc., and Meta Platforms, Inc. The Underlying Fund’s bottom five stocks by contribution to return were Salesforce, Inc., PayPal Holdings, Inc., HubSpot, Inc., Copart, Inc., and Atlassian Corporation.

The U.S. dollar depreciated 4.65% against the Canadian dollar from December 31, 2024, to December 31, 2025. FDN.F hedges its exposure to the U.S. dollar.

Recent Developments

To paint a picture of how much the internet has changed over the past 12 months, OpenAI had ~300M weekly active users in December of 2024, that number has since soared to more than 800M as of the beginning of November. Other significant developments included Google Gemini’s meteoric rise, Anthropic Claude becoming a major player in the enterprise market, and total search volumes broadly increasing as traditional search has largely remained intact. The internet is changing dramatically, and many companies remain in a state of flux. The market is trying to decide which companies are going to be winners as they successfully adapt to this new environment, and which companies are losers at risk of being displaced. At a high level, the industry is moving into a period of great innovation, as

(a) For the years prior to February 17, 2021, represent returns for the First Trust ETF based on the First Trust ETF's investment objective prior to the change in investment objective which occurred on February 17, 2021.

(1) Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated year, including the First Trust ETF's proportionate share of the MER of the Underlying Fund in which the First Trust ETF has invested, and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the year.

(2) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the year. This includes the First Trust ETF's proportionate share of the commissions of Underlying Fund in which the First Trust ETF has invested.

(3) The First Trust ETF's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the First Trust ETF's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the First Trust ETF buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a First Trust ETF's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading cost payable by the First Trust ETF in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between high turnover rate and the performance of a First Trust ETF.

Management Fees

The First Trust ETF will pay the Manager a management fee of 0.15% based on the average daily NAV of the First Trust ETF. The management fee, plus applicable taxes including HST, will be accrued daily and paid monthly in arrears. The Manager may, from time to time in its discretion, waive all or a portion of the management fee charged at any given time.

The First Trust ETF's management fee will also bear the management fee of the Underlying Fund.
