Effective February 17, 2021, the First Trust ETF changed its investment objectives to seek to replicate, to the extent possible, the perform-ance of an index of U.S. listed companies designed to track the performance of clean energy companies engaged in manufacturing, develop-ment, distribution and installation of clean-energy technologies including, but not limited to, solar photovoltaics, wind power, advanced batteries, fuel cells, and electric vehicles, initially the NASDAQ® Clean Edge® Green Energy Index℠. In connection with the change of in-vestment objectives, the name of the First Trust ETF changed to First Trust NASDAQ® Clean Edge® Green Energy ETF. The First Trust ETF provides exposure to its new index by investing all or substantially all of its assets in an underlying U.S. index fund known as First Trust NASDAQ® Clean Edge® Green Energy Index Fund, which is managed by the First Trust ETF's portfolio advisor.

The index is a modified market capitalization weighted index designed to track the performance of clean energy companies that are publicly traded in the United States and includes companies engaged in manufacturing, development, distribution and installation of emerging clean-energy technologies including, but not limited to, solar photovoltaics, wind power, advanced batteries, fuel cells, and electric vehicles.

The NASDAQ® Clean Edge® Green Energy IndexSM is a modified market cap weighted index in which larger companies receive a larger index weighting. The index weighting methodology includes caps to prevent high concentrations among larger alternative energy stocks.

The index is reconstituted twice a year in March and September and rebalanced quarterly.
